

MUSIC FRIDAYS @NOON

MUSIC FRIDAYS @ NOON is a series of one-hour, free programs featuring the College of DuPage Music department, with performances and presentations by COD faculty, students, alumni and guests.

JANUARY 2019

25 Student Spotlight: Parallel Octaves (MAC Lobby)

FEBRUARY

- 1 Faculty Recital: Carolyn May, flute, and Cindy Trowbridge, piano, Rondos for Flute
- 8 Guest Speaker: Music director of Bollywood Boulevard, a featured show at the MAC with dance, live music, storytelling and stunning visuals that bring 100 years of Hindi cinema history to the stage.
- 15 Guest/Faculty Recital: Fourth Coast Ensemble and Lee Kesselman, piano
- 22 Guest Speaker: Dan Bindert, WDCB Station Manager, Jazz—American Art Form or World Music?, presented in collaboration with the COD Humanities Festival

MARCH

- 1 Guest Artists: Arabic Dance and Drumming with Iranian Dance Class Don Skoog and DeLayne Doyle, percussion, Maria Mobasseri, Arabic and Iranian dance
- 8 Faculty Recital: Andy Rosza, trombone, and William Buhr, piano
- 15 Student Recital
- 22 Student Spotlight/Masterclass: COD Chamber Singers perform for a member of the legendary music group Take 6, in concert that evening at the MAC
- 29 No event

APRIL

- 5 Alumni Spotlight: Amy Kuckelman, soprano, and William Buhr, piano
- 12 Faculty Spotlight: Tom Tallman, Pops, Prez, Sun Ra and Anatomy of a Hit
- 19 Guest/Faculty Recital: Dessislava Nenova, cello, and Lee Kesselman, piano
- 26 Student Spotlight: COD's Got Talent (Belushi Hall)

MAY

- 3 Student Recital
- 10 Student Recital

All events are free and begin at noon in MAC Room 140.

For more information, contact Lee Kesselman, kesselma@cod.edu.

For ADA accommodations, call (630) 942-2141 (voice) or (630) 858-9692 (TDD). Please call two weeks in advance.