Dear Friends of BTE,

Our 31st Anniversary Season was nothing short of miraculous! It’s because of YOU and your patronage that BTE exists. We are very proud to say that we have been JEFF RECOMMENDED for 2016-17’s Good People, and 2017-18’s The 39 Steps, shows that remind us all of what it means to be human and a piece of a larger society.

Live theatre is a unique and essential element of a vibrant culture and community. By immersing us in the perspective of those different from ourselves, it makes tangible the commonality of our existence. By creating a unique experience – in the moment, between audience and artists – we acknowledge and celebrate our humanity.

BTE is the place for artists, community members and students to celebrate live theatre. It is your theatre because BTE is a part of the structure of the community – both the educational component of College of DuPage and the culture and life of DuPage County. Every performance nurtures a shared experience, enriching each of us.

We are thrilled to share the upcoming season with you, which explores, from very different perspectives, the idea of digging deep into one’s self to find the right path forward. Thank you for giving BTE renewed life. We look forward to seeing you again in that special shared space that live theatre creates.

Sincerely,
The Ensemble
