

The Laramie Project: Ten Years Later Cast List

Thank you to everyone who auditioned! It was great seeing all of you, albeit virtually. If your name does not appear below, please know that there will be more auditions in January, for the Spring shows: Under Milk Wood and War of the Worlds. There are also many classes in our department, listed at

<https://myaccess.cod.edu/WebAdvisor/WebAdvisor?TOKENIDX=7519129196&SS=2&APP=ST&CONSTITUENCY=WBAP>

If your name is on this list, congratulations! We'll meet THIS SUNDAY, 8/16 at 7P, VIA A ZOOM LINK WHICH THE DIRECTOR WILL SEND TO YOU, FOR A MEETING AND DISCUSSION, AND TO GET YOU REGISTERED IN THE CLASS (which is the show – rehearsals and performances of the show IS the class); you need to be registered in the class (we'll talk about electronic permits at first rehearsal, this Sunday) by Wednesday, 8/19 at noon. Be sure to have something to write with at this rehearsal.

I'm working on a rehearsal schedule (it is challenging, merging our schedules 😊), but the second rehearsal will be next Thursday, 8/20, at 7P, so mark that date; we do have a few more people auditioning, who had technical difficulties, so it's possible our cast could grow a bit more, too. My intent is to do a full read-through at this rehearsal, assigning your multiple roles, as well as have a completed rehearsal schedule. You'll need your script, something to write with, and lots of concentration for this rehearsal!

You can purchase your script from Bookstore. This is the process: you can place your order online at bkstr.com/dupagestore. There is curbside pickup Monday-Friday 9A-3P, or you can arrange for shipping to your home at checkout (but I'd really suggest curbside – otherwise, we'll be waiting for your script to arrive; you need your script by Thursday's rehearsal). You can call the Bookstore at 630-942-2361 with questions and to setup a curbside appointment during the designated hours.

Again, YOU MUST BE REGISTERED BY NOON, THIS Wednesday, 8/19; I'll process permits Sunday night, after rehearsal, but please do not attempt to register before Monday at noon, to give Registration a chance to process the e-permits. Looking forward to it! Connie C H canaday@cod.edu
