

Your Spring Entertainment is in Bloom!

SPRING 2021

Dear MAC Viewers,

Thank you for joining us tonight for this virtual performance and supporting the artists in tonight's performance. We have found ways to keep the arts alive, but what I learned and have always known is that the audience is the most important part of the show and we miss seeing you. I miss the audience interaction and meeting new people at the shows.

I am going to ask you a favor... while you are watching please snap a photo and share it with us, so we can share it and stay connected. Feel free to drop us a line to let us know how you enjoyed the show or what you want to see more of. You can email me at martinezd59@cod.edu. I have deep confidence that we will be together in person soon, and we are so fortunate to stay connected through technology and take a break from this crazy world and escape into something that heals, and fills our soul!

With deepest gratitude for your support and patronage.

Enjoy the show!

McAninch Arts Center
at College of DuPage
presents

Music at the MAC

“Welcome to a place where music is performed, studied, explored and shared.” Well, in the fall semester of 2020-2021, that place is an electronic reality, not a geographical one. The era of COVID19 has changed the way we make music, but not the joy of it.

Normally, in the McAninch Arts Center at College of DuPage, students and community musicians explore the musical arts, hone their skills and entertain audiences. You can usually walk through our hallways and hear the sounds of instrumental and vocal ensembles, private lessons in all instruments and voice, and music classes, as well as in performances like the one you are enjoying today.

This year, www.atthemac.org is the ‘place’ where you can find our music program. Many of our music courses are being offered in a hybrid format, with some face-to-face instruction. Others are virtual, either synchronous or asynchronous.

We hope you enjoy the broad range of music we make with collaborations of eager musicians and experienced faculty in classical, jazz and unclassifiable styles. All of our ensembles welcome new members at the start of every semester and perform regularly. We hope to bring back one or more of our other ensembles in the spring.

We hope you enjoy tonight’s concert. Drop in on our free virtual Music Fridays @ Noon on atthemac.org/music-fridays-noon. Join us on Facebook (AtTheMAC) or by joining our e-newsletter for news about all the events at the MAC (www.AtTheMAC.org).

Enjoy the music!

PROGRAM NOTES

This concert offers us the possibility of building a bridge between music and the human connection out of the desire to compassionately care and help.

Ryanne Mace

Ryanne, prom picture

Ryanne Mace had the unique ability to help and comfort people with her words and actions.

At Northern Illinois University, Mace, a 19-year-old sophomore from Carpentersville, was an honors student studying psychology with the intention of attaining a doctorate-level degree and working in the field of counseling. On February 14, 2008, she was murdered along with four fellow students through gun violence on campus.

Ryanne was a violinist, writer and a poet. These attributes closely connected with our students. Our class learned from her parents Mary Kay and Eric, about her humor, favorites, dreams aspirations, adventures and her innate desire to help others. Through conversations and reflections students began the journey to use their special talents and gifts to positively transform the world.

With the spirit of Ryanne in our hearts, this concert embodies collaboration, renewal and enlightenment. The concert is molded by our collective talent, desires and experiences which were brought into a new light through a horrific tragedy. A tragedy that touches new lives every single day.

Through the Ryanne Mace Endowed Scholarship Fund, her legacy lives on to assist graduate students studying clinical or school psychology at NIU. The intent of the scholarship is to help others who embody the spirit and strength in character that Ryanne exemplified as a student and most importantly, as a person.

Compassion and healing through music is our goal. We invite you to reflect, celebrate, grieve and find renewal as you listen to our music. This concert is filled with purposeful words, thoughts and caring music. Ryanne’s legacy lives on in our lives. We are forever changed to have been touched by her and her family. We are forever grateful.

Beyond the Gate, by Stephanie Ann Boyd

Beyond the gate
the open land speaks in greens
beckoning to the firefly grove
where sapphire shimmers on gossamer wings
dance in lightness, stand stoic in shadows

The mirror pond is calm and still no etchings mar its surface-glass
Yet there is movement beneath the depths,
beyond the gate, a murmuring
above the mirror, nothing can be seen,
not the ripples, carried almost to the circle-surface
only to fall deep, float back down
the mirror pond shines, calm and still

The hosta garden is alive
jump the bugs and humming bees
warm the broad-leafed hubs
and spring from emerald plant to plant frantically flinging their crunchy bodies
in all their speed they can't live long...

Want to Help Support COD Music Students?

Ascension, by John Ogan

On a blue and green marble floating through space
 It has taken a few billion years for us to get here.
 In that time we have learned
 There is more to being human
 Than just being here.

It is our consciousness and kindness
 That keeps us here.
 With our minds like no other,
 we have more than just life.

We can understand how and why
 Things are and build in and beyond the sky.

But all we do does not matter if our kindness ever dies.
 Our purpose stops if we choose to hate or despise or despair.
 Out in the cosmos, in the infinite space,
 What we send forth matters.

The Sun Shines Brightly in Heaven, by Cheyenne Nape

Beneath the starry sky so bright,
 Above the clouds so bold so light.
 Lies a place that one describes
 More beautiful than nature's sight.

In awe of many lies the gate,
 In front of which many angels wait.
 Made of pearls so gleaming and white,
 You're sure to cry at the very sight.

Within the gates, you hear a song,
 Sung by angels tall and strong.
 The light you see may blind you so,
 But smile you will and never let go.

Surely the sun shines brightly in heaven,
 For all the days and days to come.
 For neither exists the day or night,
 Just God's bright light that shines alone.

They say His love will never fail,
 Through all the bad his love prevails.
 Through darkest nights his light will shine,
 To guide you home into his light.

To believe is just the start,
 He knows your thoughts,
 he knows your heart.
 Trust in Him, you'll always know,
 He's always with you wherever you go.

A Letter from Ryanne, by Cheyenne Nape

Dear Mom and Dad,

Hey, it's me. I just wanted to drop a line to let you know I'm doing just fine. While I am gone, it doesn't feel like it. I hear you talk to me every day, and it makes me smile. I try to send you signals every day to let you know I'm here. I hope you're not too bummed I'm gone – I'm still here in your hearts. I see you listening to my music, and it makes me smile. I try to let you know every day that I'm here and listening.

I hope you're keeping my violin safe – it's the one thing my presence remains strong in; it's how I let you know I'm still here. Also, thank you for continuing to collect my quarters for me – maybe one day you'll be able to travel to all those places for me and tell me about it when you come to be here with me. I know things have been hard while I've been gone, but I hope the signs that I send you take the edge off a bit and make you smile.

I want to tell you not to worry anymore – you couldn't have saved me. While what happened to me was wrong, I want you to know that I'm very happy. I have never been happier. I enjoyed every moment I had with you, and I want you to enjoy the rest of your moments. I realize now that the earthly experience is all about finding our way back to love and trekking through the hard journey we call life. Until we meet again, I ask you to love with all your heart, and enjoy every second of every day – for tomorrow isn't promised. Thank you for loving me unconditionally for 19 whole years. Thank you for teaching me all that you did. I hope now you can learn from me and know how much I love you.

With all the love in my heart,
 Your sweet Ryanne

PROFILES

The COD Chamber Orchestra is a blended group composed of student and community members, open to all from high school to adult regardless of degree. It is a class at COD and rehearses on Tuesday evenings. Presently, the COD Chamber Orchestra has openings in several sections. For more information on performing in the COD Chamber Orchestra, please email baumanp257@cod.edu.

Philip Bauman (Director). Recognized by critics as offering “tremendously sensitive direction” and being “a gifted and spirited conductor,” Philip Bauman currently serves as music director of the Michigan City Messiah, conductor of the Northwest Indiana Symphony Youth Orchestra and the South Suburban College Orchestra in addition to conductor of the COD Chamber Orchestra. He is frequently hailed for his innovative programs and consistently captivating performances. A passionate advocate for music education, Mr. Bauman has dedicated much of his career to exploring music with young people through educational concerts and work with youth orchestras.

During his successful 24-year tenure at the La Porte County Symphony, he was credited with significantly raising the orchestra’s artistic level, spearheading a resurgence in the educational programming and more than doubling the audience.

Through his work with Chicago Opera Theater, The Opera Factory, da Corneto Opera, Light Opera Works and the Jarvis Conservatory, Mr. Bauman has gained a reputation as a highly respected conductor of the stage.

In the Chicago area, he has served as music director and conductor of The Opera Factory (IL), the Chicago Brass Choir, the Lake Shore Symphony Orchestra, associate conductor of the Northwest Indiana Symphony and for 13 seasons, associate conductor of the Elgin Symphony where he conducted over 100 performances. He also served as director of orchestras at Carl Sandburg High School in Orland Park (IL).

Mr. Bauman holds a master’s degree in orchestral conducting from Northwestern University and a bachelor’s degree in music theory from Western Michigan University.

the mac WHERE CULTURE AND COMMUNITY CONNECT

Thank You!

The MAC, in partnership with the College of DuPage Foundation, thanks our generous 2020-2021 sponsors. Sponsor support helps us to keep ticket prices affordable and allows for engagement and enrichment for the entire community, making the MAC the Center where culture and community connect.

Friends of the MAC

The Friends of the MAC is a family of people who have decided that a world-class performing and visual arts center should reside in their community. Ticket sales only provide 42 percent of our $3 million operating budget. It is through the support of College of DuPage and through the generous gifts from patrons and local businesses that we can keep art in our gallery and on our stages.

Your gift to the MAC

- Brings nationally and internationally renowned artists to our community
- Supports our SchoolStage program that annually offers affordable arts experiences to thousands of school children
- Provides students and community members the opportunity to interact with artists
- Enhances the quality of life in our community

Without the generous support of the Friends of the MAC we would not be the cultural hub of DuPage County. We gratefully thank our friends and we invite others to join them.

For complete details, visit the MAC Ticket Office or call the MAC at (630) 942-2263 or the College of DuPage Foundation at (630) 942-2466.

Arts Center and MAC-tastic Treat Seats Endowments

Donors may choose to direct gifts to the Arts Center Endowment or the newly established MAC-tastic Treat Seats — Tickets for Kids & Families Endowment. Donations made to these MAC Endowments, our “savings accounts,” go into principal secured, invested accounts that will provide ongoing support for arts programs and arts accessibility for years to come.

The McAninch Arts Center and the College of DuPage Foundation can also provide you with information on Planned Giving opportunities.

For more information, please contact the MAC at (630) 942-2263, the College of DuPage Foundation at (630) 942-2466 or visit foundation.cod.edu.
