Pianist Cynthia Trowbridge is a member of the piano faculty at College of DuPage, where she teaches private and class piano and serves as staff accompanist. She does extensive work as an accompanist for vocal and instrumental recitals at Wheaton College, and performs as a collaborative pianist throughout the Chicagoland area. Trowbridge is the principal pianist for Credo Flute, and has served as music director for Wheaton College's Opera Music Theater program and as pianist for DuPage Opera Theater. She has released recordings with the Carey Consort and has been featured in several WFMT live broadcasts.

MUSIC FRIDAYS AT NOON

The COD music faculty created Music Fridays @ Noon to showcase student, faculty, alumni and guest artists in a free, accessible daytime series of music performances and related events. The series is open to the entire COD community as a place where a broad spectrum of music is on display. Concerts are approximately one hour in length. For more information, visit atthemac.org/music-fridays-noon.

MAKE MUSIC WHERE MUSIC THRIVES

College of DuPage brings 50 years of training and supporting musicians like you in whatever it is you want to do. With a staff of 25 private music instructors, nine ensembles, and four degree and certificate programs, COD is the first choice of serious musicians from the western suburbs and beyond.
