Pianist Cynthia Trowbridge is a member of the piano faculty at College of DuPage, where she teaches private and class piano and serves as staff accompanist. She does extensive work as an accompanist for vocal and instrumental recitals at Wheaton College, and performs as a collaborative pianist throughout the Chicagoland area. Trowbridge is the principal pianist for Credo Flute, and has served as music director for Wheaton College’s Opera Music Theater program and as pianist for DuPage Opera Theater. She has released recordings with the Carey Consort and has been featured in several WFMT live broadcasts.

Private Lessons at College of DuPage

Do you wish that you could express yourself through music? Interested in learning to sing or to play a musical instrument from an expert who can either explain the basics or take your skills to a higher level? At College of DuPage, we offer private lessons in voice, piano, guitar, percussion, and all band and orchestra instruments. Students can take classes with more than two dozen experienced instructors with outstanding expertise, qualifications, and advanced degrees, with lessons for all ages and ability levels.

Enroll in a class today!

Applied lessons are available in voice, piano, organ, guitar, and most band and orchestral instruments for all skill and ages. For more information, contact Deb Zelman at \(630\) 942-2391 or zelmand@cod.edu.

Non-credit lessons: Contact Continuing Education \(630\) 942-2208.

MUSIC FRIDAYS @ NOON

The COD music faculty created Music Fridays @ Noon to showcase student, faculty, alumni and guest artists in a free, accessible daytime series of music performances and related events. The series is open to the entire COD community as a place where a broad spectrum of music is on display. Concerts are approximately one hour in length.

For Spring 2021, all concerts will be streamed virtually for free. For the links to each concert and downloadable programs, visit atthemac.org/music-fridays-noon. For more information, contact Lee Kesselman at kesselma@cod.edu.
