

IS BACK! IN PERSON

35th Anniversary Season

Dear MAC Friends!

I am so thrilled to be writing to you with the wonderful news that we are returning to in-person performances in time to celebrate our 35th anniversary together! We have safety protocols in place to help mitigate the spread of COVID-19, which you can read about on our website, atthemac.org. As the pandemic changes, so will our policies and we will keep you updated.

This season is packed with your favorites. Music fans will enjoy everything from electrifying BoDeans, to the legendary Oak Ridge Boys, to The Texas Tenors. Get ready for a Mardi Gras and Zydeco party with the Dirty Dozen Brass Band at Mardi Gras Mambo. I also look forward to sharing one of the most compelling concerts I've seen, in an evening with Tony Award-winning Broadway star, Heather Headley.

We are happy to remain the home of our resident companies Buffalo Theatre Ensemble and New Philharmonic. BTE brings live theater back with Stove Toucher, a one-man show written and performed by Kurt Naebig, and closes the season with the hysterical One Man, Two Guvnors. New Philharmonic Orchestra and Maestro Muspratt are putting on a blockbuster season starting with a Spooktacular concert filled with themes from your favorite horror cinema classics, followed by American melodies in Dvořák's New World Symphony featuring the incomparable David Taylor playing one of the most complex violin pieces, culminating in a concert version of West Side Story.

Following the blockbuster Frida Kahlo exhibition this summer, the Cleve Carney Museum of Art will open its season with COD alum and brilliant contemporary artist Tony Fitzpatrick. We will close the MAC season in 2022 by bringing back the beloved free outdoor Lakeside Summer series!

We look forward to seeing you and engaging in thought-provoking, joy-inducing, exciting LIVE entertainment. I look forward to seeing you back at the MAC soon!

Enjoy the show!

PROFILE

The High Kings are Finbarr Clancy, Darren Holden, Brian Dunphy and Paul O'Brien. The High Kings formed in June 2007 when Brian, Darren, Finbarr and former member Martin Furey were asked to join a brand new Irish ballad group by David Kavanagh after he had noticed a gap in the market for a band specializing in traditional Irish music.

It didn't take long during their first studio rehearsal for them to realize that the way their individual voices blended together, that they were onto something special. The High Kings play 13 instruments between them creating the unique sound and atmosphere that they still showcase to this day. This was confirmed when their self-titled debut album reached number two on the world Billboard Music chart. In March 2009, The High Kings played five consecutive sold out shows to a packed audience in Dublin's Olympia Theatre.

Toward the end of 2009, The High Kings licensed their second studio album Memory Lane to Universal Music Ireland signifying the fast trajectory that the band had taken in their short lifespan. Memory Lane was released in February 2010, and after a successful Irish tour, the album went platinum in June only four months after its initial release. They followed Memory Lane with a Live in Ireland album, which received critical acclaim as it showcased the energy that the band brings to the live shows.

By 2011, the band had outgrown the venues they had been previously playing and had to start playing larger venues not only in Ireland but also in America and across Europe. Many fans became regular faces as they effectively followed the band on their sold out tours, many crossing oceans and borders throughout the world just to see their favorite band perform live. People loved what they were doing, bringing a new take on traditional Irish ballads to audiences of multiple generations. In 2013, the band licensed their fourth album Friends for Life to Sony Worldwide, another indication of their global appeal. Friends for Life featured eight original songs written and composed by the band and was released in 2013. Taking their original songs on the road was a new and exciting milestone for the band, and it wasn't long before the likes of "Oh Maggie" and "Ireland's Shore" were being sung back to them by the audience.

November 2014 marked another milestone for the band when they recorded Four Friends Live at the Millennium Forum in Derry which was their first joint CD/DVD and the first live DVD recording since the debut DVD Live in Dublin in 2008. The early part of 2016 was spent back in the studio recording their Grace & Glory album. The album charted at number one on the Irish Indie charts and was very well received by critics and fans alike. The rest of 2016 and early 2017 was spent extensively touring the new album. Over the past 12 years, The High Kings have released four studio albums, two live albums and two DVDs. In 2017, they released a compilation album, Decade, which celebrated 10 amazingly successful years together and also included five brand new recordings.

In 2012, they performed for President Obama in Moneygall; this led to a personal invitation from the president to perform at the 2012 White House St. Patrick's day celebration. They flew directly from London where they had already been the headline act for the Lord Mayor of London's St. Patrick's Day concert. In 2015, The High Kings were invited to the Pentagon as guests of General Martin Dempsey, who was the Chairman of The Joint Chiefs of Staff. They performed alongside the US Marine Corps band marking another special occasion for the band. To celebrate the 20th anniversary of the Irish Rugby anthem "Ireland's Call" the band was asked by the original composer Phil Coulter to record their own version, which was subsequently included in the TV3 documentary.

The High Kings continue to set the bar extremely high for Irish Folk bands across the world and are widely regarded to be at the forefront of the genre, performing in sell-out venues across the globe to their ever-growing army of loyal fans that span generations.

2021 sees the release of Home from Home, their brand-new 11-track album. Recorded live at Concert Deck in Dublin, Home from Home is a journey through classic folk songs, old and new.

"The idea behind this album was to bring our fans on a journey across the world, to some of the places we call home when we tour, via some of the classic folk songs that have inspired us along the way."

The McAninch Arts Center season celebrates the memory of Joan Frank for a lifetime of service, thanks to the support of family and friends.

Friends of the MAC

The Friends of the MAC is a family of people who have decided that a world-class performing and visual arts center should reside in their community. Ticket sales only provide 42 percent of our $3 million operating budget. It is through the support of College of DuPage and through the generous gifts from patrons and local businesses that we can keep art in our gallery and on our stages.

Your gift to the MAC

- Brings nationally and internationally renowned artists to our community
- Supports our SchoolStage program that annually offers affordable arts experiences to thousands of school children
- Provides students and community members the opportunity to interact with artists
- Enhances the quality of life in our community

Without the generous support of the Friends of the MAC we would not be the cultural hub of DuPage County. We gratefully thank our friends and we invite others to join them.

For complete details, visit the MAC Ticket Office or call the MAC at (630)942-4525, or the College of DuPage Foundation at (630) 942-2466.
