Dear Friends of BTE,

"I regard the theater as the greatest of all art forms, the most immediate way in which a human being can share with another the sense of what it is to be a human being." -Thornton Wilder

Buffalo Theatre Ensemble is incredibly proud to embark on our 35th Anniversary Season! We can hardly wait to welcome people back into a space where as the house lights darken, the hush of the collective room tunes into active listening, and we share our experience.

It is with enormous optimism and gratitude that we look forward to the reopening of the theatre where we can continue to explore, enrich, and engage with each other through Giving Stories Life. All three of our productions are a celebration of people on the precipice of change, who move forward with courage and joy – a theme which seems appropriate given the last couple of years – and as we all look to the future.

Please know that as our subscribers, our extended family, we value your safety, as well as that of our artists; we are practicing safety guidelines set forth by the Centers of Disease Control and Prevention, the State of Illinois, and the McAninch Arts Center/College of DuPage. These guidelines will be modified based on evolving standards.

Thank you for joining us on the next steps of our anniversary and more!

With great affection,

Sincerely, The Ensemble

THE SAFETY AND HEALTH OF OUR AUDIENCES, STAFF, AND ARTISTS IS OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE.

A solo show written and performed by Kurt Naebig

Directed by Connie Canaday Howard

What happens when you achieve the high-rolling lifestyle you always dreamed of...at thirteen years old? An extraordinary and funny coming-of-age story set during the 1970s skateboard boom, about a semi-pro boarder who opens a successful business, gets interviewed by Charlie Rose and falls into drugs: all before high school. Stove Toucher is a high adrenaline, hilarious, heartfelt recounting of everything you ever wanted – and then watching it fall apart.

Laura Linney (Academy Award Nominee, Emmy and Golden Globe Winner) says, "Kurt Naebig's show is unique, his storytelling fascinating and nimble, but it's the depth of his spirit that stays with you long after "Stove Toucher" is over."

Contains adult themes and language.

NAPERVILLE

By Mat Smart

FUNNY AND MOVING SALUTE TO A NEW DEFINITION OF HOME

It is Naperville, 2012. Anne works on a new project, T.C. is working his first shift as a new manager and Candice and son Howard are back from Seattle, arriving at her favorite spot: Caribou coffee. What follows is a day full of cups of coffee with eccentricity. Conversations create a turning point which reveals how much community adds to your life.

The New York Times says, "...everyone in this shop has a story, a loss, a regret and Smart weaves their tales together adeptly."

Contains adult themes and language.

APRIL 28 - MAY 29

ONE MAN, TWO GUVNORS

By Richard Bean

The ever-starving Francis Henshall finds himself working for both a gangster and a criminal in hiding, both of whom are linked in a web of schemes, shakedowns and seductions. To prevent the discovery that he is working for two bosses, Francis must do everything he can to keep his two guvnors apart, while still getting food and the girl. Playwright Bean transports the commedia dell'arte conventions of the 1746 "The Servant of Two Masters" to the seaside town of Brighton in 1963.

Daily Variety calls "One Man, Two Guvnors" "...sheer comic delirium."

Contains adult themes and language.
